

Vocational education in learning clusters – the combination of practical education and theoretical education

Examples from professional practise

Theoretical education

... from a traditional point of view:

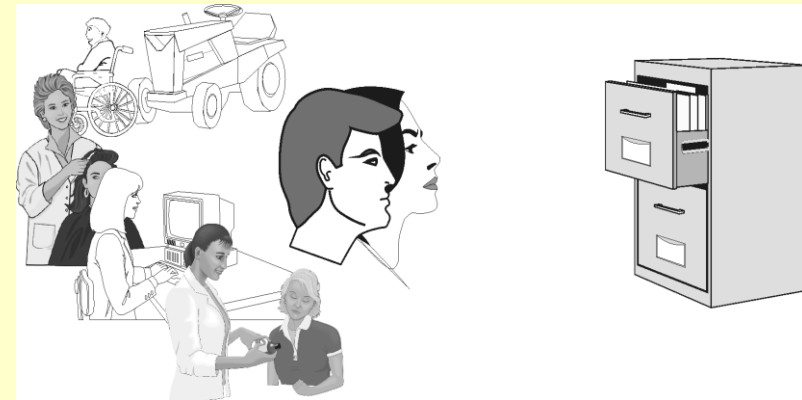

basis: subjects

Theoretical knowledge is taught in a practically based way (according to subject structures)

...from the vantage point of the learning cluster concept:

basis: professional based tasks and activities

Theoretical knowledge is taught in an activity-oriented way

Professional activities

Theoretical education